WHY BOLTON?

Granted University status in 2005 and based on a modern, compact, town-centre campus with around 11,000 students Bolton University is the perfect opportunity for clients to promote their brand and engage directly with a captive audience.

We have over 40 sports clubs and societies and boast the only bar and retail shop on campus along with offering advice, welfare and support along with other key services from our building means that footfall is high throughout the day.
